UM MUSIC LECTURE RESCHEDULED FOR APRIL 5

MISSOULA—

The final installment of the 2002 Community Lecture Series at The University of Montana will delve into the lively and fascinating history of musical theater and film. Esther England, UM professor of voice and associate dean of fine arts, will present "Hollywood Traditions" at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 5, in the Musical Recital Hall.

England originally was scheduled to speak March 20, but that event was canceled because of weather. Her lecture is part of the "Noteworthy: Symposia of Music" series.

After earning a bachelor's degree in music with high honors from UM, England received a Fulbright scholarship to study in Germany. Thereafter she was a mezzo soloist in opera and oratorio in Germany and France for three years. She then returned to UM to begin her career as voice teacher, performer, Opera Workshop director and musical director.

The lecture costs $5 for those who haven't already purchased a series pass. It will last about an hour, followed by a question-and-answer session. Call the Alumni Association at 243-5211 for ticket information.
